

FCC is public. I am urging you to release the actual language of the rule change and allow public debate on it before a vote. This issue is of massive importance to democracy and the democratic process should be allowed!